Mr. Elmer W. Kizer, Principal, chats with Lou Askew and Carol Tiemeyer, outstanding seniors.

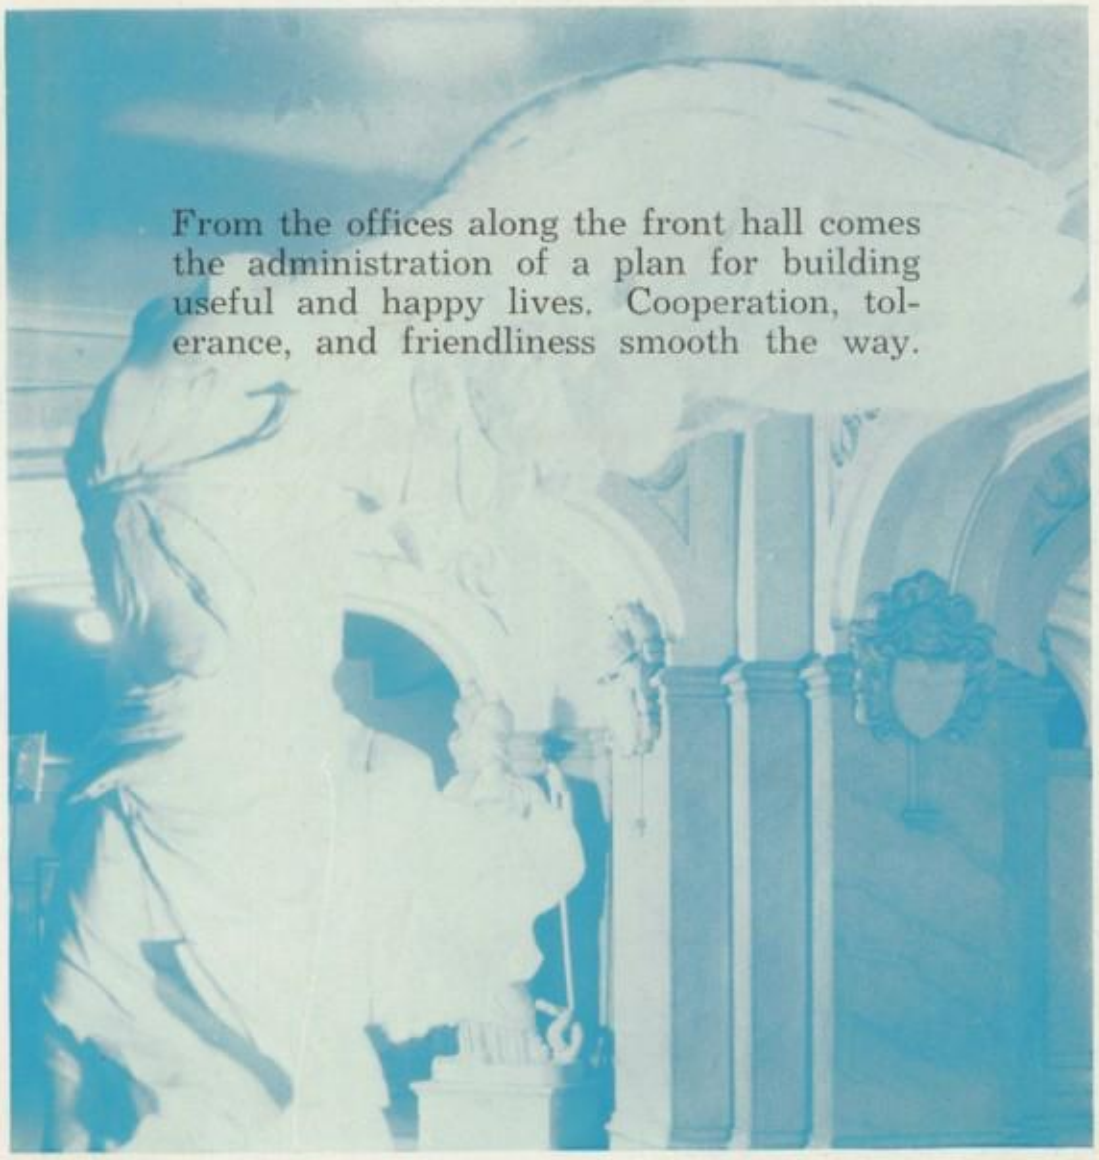
Were you one of the sidewalk superintendents who watched the construction of the Terrace Plaza building at Sixth and Vine Streets? If you were, I am sure you were impressed, as I was, by the depth of the foundation. The builders realized how essential it is for such a structure to have a firm foundation. You are building for your future and nothing is more vital than to see that the foundation you lay for your life will withstand the many storms that lie ahead.

Some of you have builded well. You have not left undone anything, while at Hughes, which would have added height to your stature. You have taken advantage of every opportunity your school has offered for your development. We fear not for your future.

Some of you have left undone many things and some day there may be a feeling of remorse at having neglected to grasp the opportunities that were yours while at Hughes. We hope that success comes to you in spite of all your neglect.

What you have experienced at Hughes is but a small part of the life you build. Home, college, business—or whatever your calling—add their contribution to your life as you live day by day. Keep striving to build in keeping with the plan the Master builder has for you.

Elmer W. Kizer



From the offices along the front hall comes the administration of a plan for building useful and happy lives. Cooperation, tolerance, and friendliness smooth the way.

THEIR FRIENDLY COUNCIL GUIDES THE BUILDERS

To the desk of Mr. Clyde Hall in Room 14 come the boys who have been absent or tardy. There is no use trying to get into home room without a slip from Mr. Hall.

THEIR GUIDANCE SHOWS US HOW TO DRAW

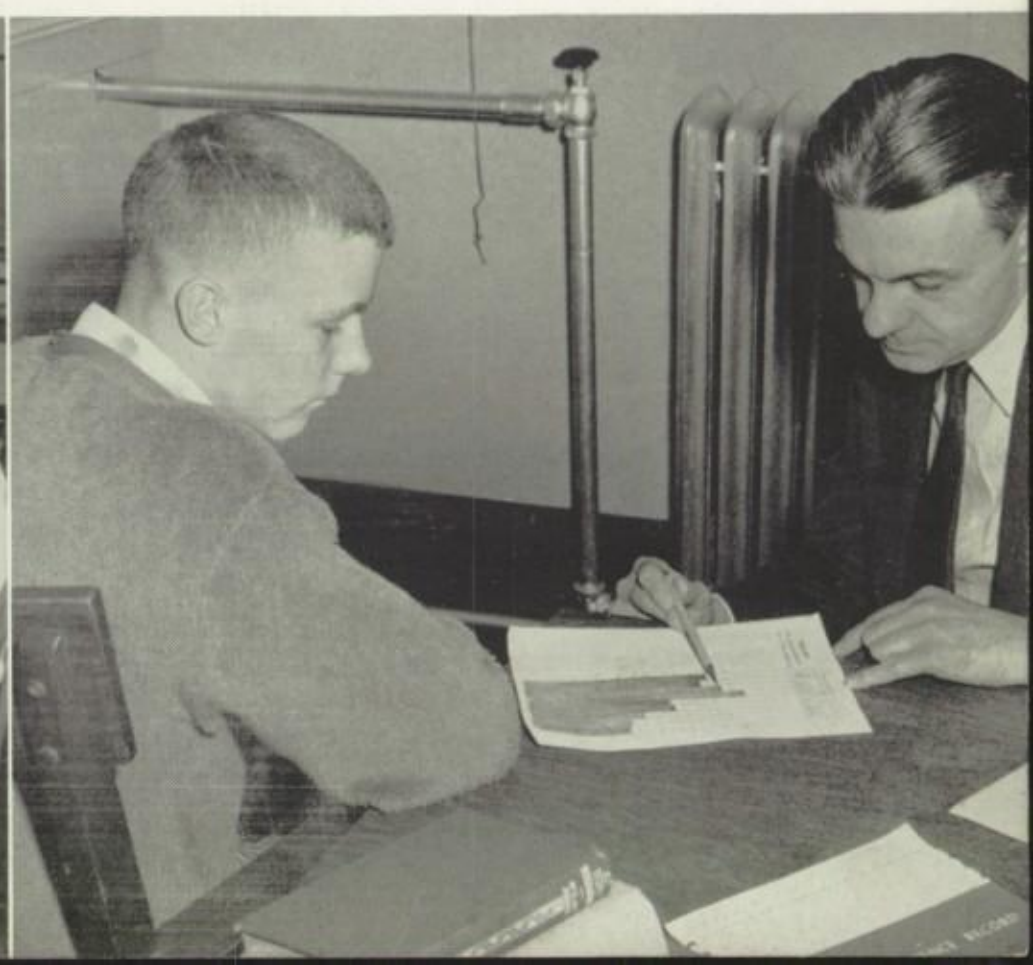
Life at Hughes requires many helping hands to make it a good construction lot. Our three charming and efficient secretaries smooth many a bad spot. On the page opposite Mr. Harry Calvert, school treasurer, counts cafeteria money and checks Hughes finances. Mr. Ralph Loudenslager, counselor, helps pupils to adjust successfully to life at Hughes and to jobs later.

Miss Gladys H. Busch, executing her duties as adviser to freshman girls, acts as assistant to Mrs. LeRoy. 109 serves as headquarters for ninth grade girls.

THE PLANS AND MAKE OUR EFFORTS COUNT



Ralph Dunn, Bob Endres and Joan Elsner above left, join in a session of speech improvement as they listen to recordings of their own voices. To understand more clearly what happens when they speak and so improve the way in which they speak, Jimmy Van Osdol and Beverly Fehrman, above right, study the physiology of the throat in Mrs. Heile's class.

ENGLISH IS THE MEANS OF COMMUNICATION

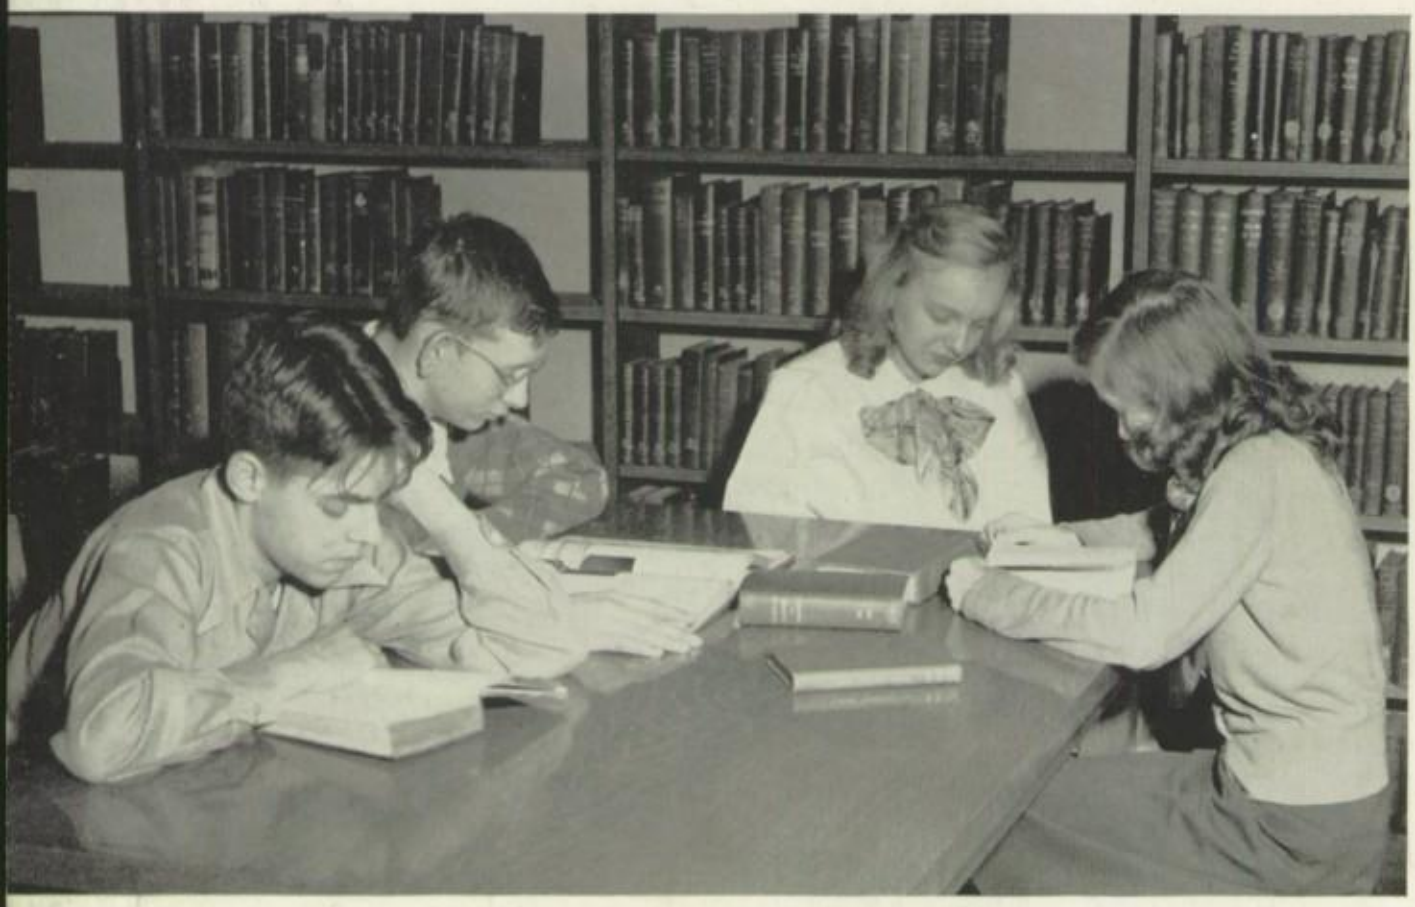
Sometimes we pay attention—

Sometimes we don't.



Sometimes we spend free time doing reference work in the library.

Sometimes we rehearse our interpretation of "Antigone."

Merchandising students combine school work with actual experience in the store. This new course is under the direction of Miss Mary McSurely at Hughes. By engaging in various activities of downtown stores, students gain insight into the real merchandising skills. They can be seen wrapping, inspecting, and selling.

To complete a well-rounded course in high school, one which will give the student a taste of work in the fields of mechanics and engineering, Hughes offers courses in machine shop, metal and woodworking, printing, and drafting. These accredited courses appeal to many students. Boys plan, design, and execute in these shops many beautiful and practical articles. Useful skills are achieved. They learn to build.

The Three Musketeers of the Music Department, Mr. John Molnar, Mr. Rea Brown, and Mr. Robert McSpadden, put their musicians through lyrical paces. Their repertoire ranges from popular sings to semi-classical arrangements. It includes folk songs and sacred music. The music department contributes to the programs of various assemblies at school, meetings and churches outside of school. A symbol of cooperation occurs biennially with the advent of the May Festival. At this time schools blend their voices in unison in this traditional Cincinnati festival at Music Hall.

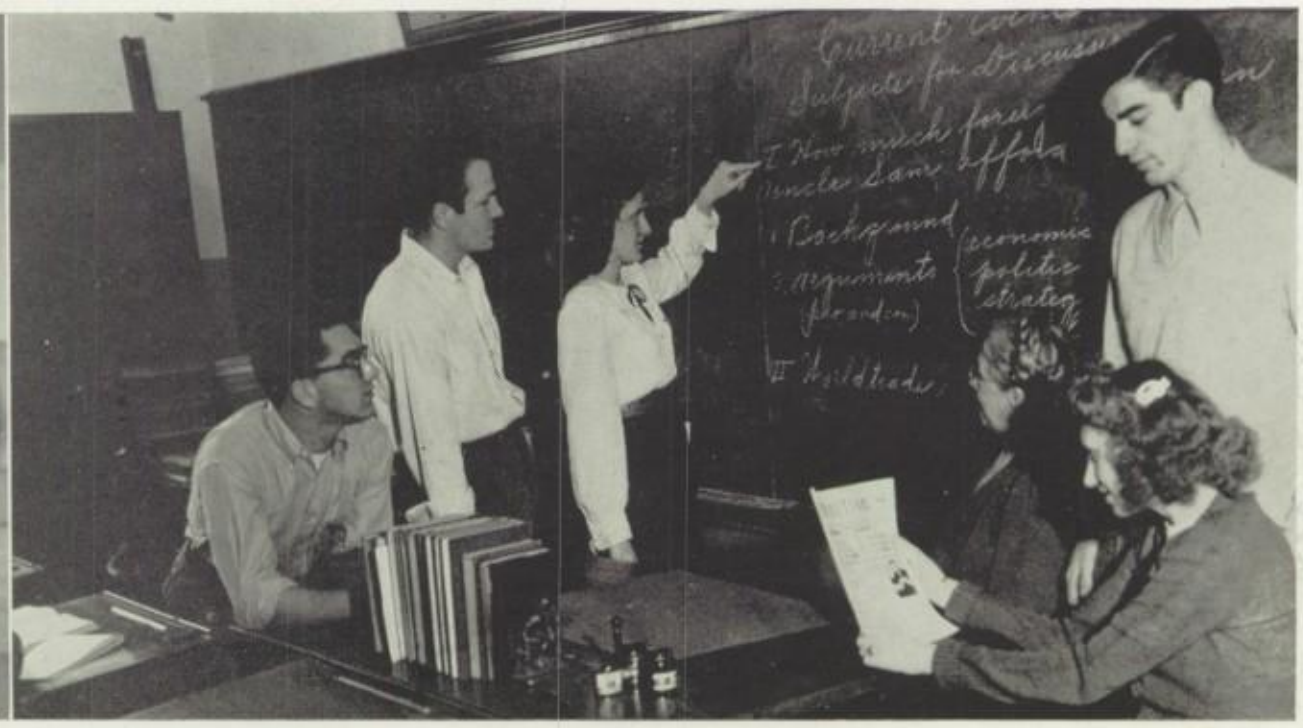
Studying French, German, and Spanish, besides giving a degree of facility in the language itself, acquaints the student with life in foreign countries. As we know more of distant lands, as we understand more of the problems common to us all, we help to build a peaceful world.

Merry Christmas!

"One World" is a current problem.



Miss Bejach and members of her class discuss the organization of the United Nations.

Keeping abreast of the times is an integral part of a well-balanced education. This challenge is accepted by the history classes as they try to familiarize the young people at Hughes with the problems of today and tomorrow. With crying need for cooperation evident in present economic and social conditions of our postwar world, we cannot side step our responsibility to be well informed. Here at Hughes, included in the social studies, are current problems, economics, sociology, history, geography.

"Miss Banes, where can I find—" "Do you have—" Comments such as these are aptly handled by Miss Banes and her co-worker, Miss Shaffer. Hundreds of students pour into the library daily for books and information. Miss Banes seems to be a walking encyclopedia as she directs students to their desired books. The library is a familiar setting for students preparing themes and weekly reports. Students may pursue their library problems before or after school or during their study periods. Those who are interested in reading for their own enjoyment find books which satisfy every mood. Mystery stories, romances, historical novels are on the shelves merely for the asking. The beautifully decorated library is also used for various programs and meetings.

Consumer Education

Miss Elizabeth Zorn
Foods, Clothing

Consumer Education is one of the new comers in the curriculum. It is designed to prepare the pupil for everyday living by giving an understanding of modern economic problems. Much of this training used to come from the home when society was more simply organized. A high school pupil is mature enough to study many of these forces which influence his daily living—to realize that wise choice making can be learned and where to go for help in unfamiliar situations. He learns that economic frauds do exist, but that many agencies are working on the consumer interest. He gives thought to life's goal for him and sees that given the same resources of time, energy, and money, one person may drift, while another through understanding and planning may find more joy in life.

"The Mayor's Christmas" refers to the annual Christmas party given for poor children in the basin of the city. The pupils in the Home Economic classes in the Cincinnati Public Schools make gifts for this occasion. In this way they are carrying out one phase of home making, and are working for those who are less fortunate than they. Each girl in the Homemaking classes at Hughes contributed stuffed toys, purses, hats, skirts, jumpers, dressed dolls, and layettes.

Both boys and girls receive a well-balanced program in physical education under the supervision of coaches and teachers from both departments. Skill, technique, and physical endurance result from the physical education activities. Swimming is included in the course and students enjoy a dip in the pool which is not all fun and frolic, however, for they must learn how to swim, dive, and tread water. Tenth graders now have a course in Safety which teaches the fundamentals of good driving. Eleventh graders study First Aid. If they complete the prescribed course satisfactorily, they are given a certificate from the Red Cross. Seniors attend weekly sessions in Health.

"LIFE AT HUGHES"

Layouts and senior panels are studied by Tom Denhart and Anne Holiday, editors.—Anne and Tom were executive engineers of "The Builders," but did many things well when emergencies arose. — Don Lieder and Martha Carter work out financial problems of the book.—Martha also collected senior data, and even typed much of the senior copy. Don's pet project was the advertising section. These four planned the book — with Miss Mary Beirne and later, Miss Helen Tangeman, faculty advisers.

This is a typical scene of after-school activities in the Annual office. At the left are Betty Worsham, who assisted in copy writing; Shirley Holmes, who edited the club section; Ned Bishop and Ed Effron, coworkers of the first four signatures. Virginia Hall approves of Judith Feiler's copy.—Virginia and Judith worked together on the underclassmen section, and on copy throughout the book. Layout space and involved problems of proportion became easy meat for these members of the staff.

The theme of "The Builders" was chosen by the staff of the '48 Annual at Hughes because this idea suggested what the editors wanted to portray about the constructive aspects of work and play at school. At the end of their junior year, the executives for the following year's annual are chosen at Hughes by student petition, faculty approval, and class election. The finished product is the result of the combined cooperation of the literary staff, artists, photographers, and typists, (adviser), and student body.

The position of annual adviser fell back into the experienced hands of Miss Helen Tangeman after having been capably held a year and a half by Miss Mary Bierne. Cooperating with Miss Bierne and Miss Tangeman, Mr. Clyde Hall as faculty financial adviser worked with the business staff and home room representatives to push the annual sales well over the ninety per cent mark. In the past, annuals at Hughes have had a record of National and Columbia Scholastic Press Association awards.

UNDERCLASSMEN

GROW IN SKILLS AND STATURE

Bob Gettinger

JUNIORS, seniors of tomorrow, citizens of the future, realize some clowning and fun must supplement their firmness of purpose in order to build a better life.

SOPHISTICATED SOPHIES ARE HOPEFUL OF 1950 WHEN THEY WILL BE CRAFTSMEN IN CHARGE

SOPHOMORES who are on the second rung of the ladder of high school life have just begun their long climb toward realizing their ambitions. Here at Hughes they are provided with the equipment and facilities for education that the knowledge and experience of the teachers will help them to use in building a strong and enduring structure. As underclassmen they build for usefullness now and tomorrow; they build for God and country.

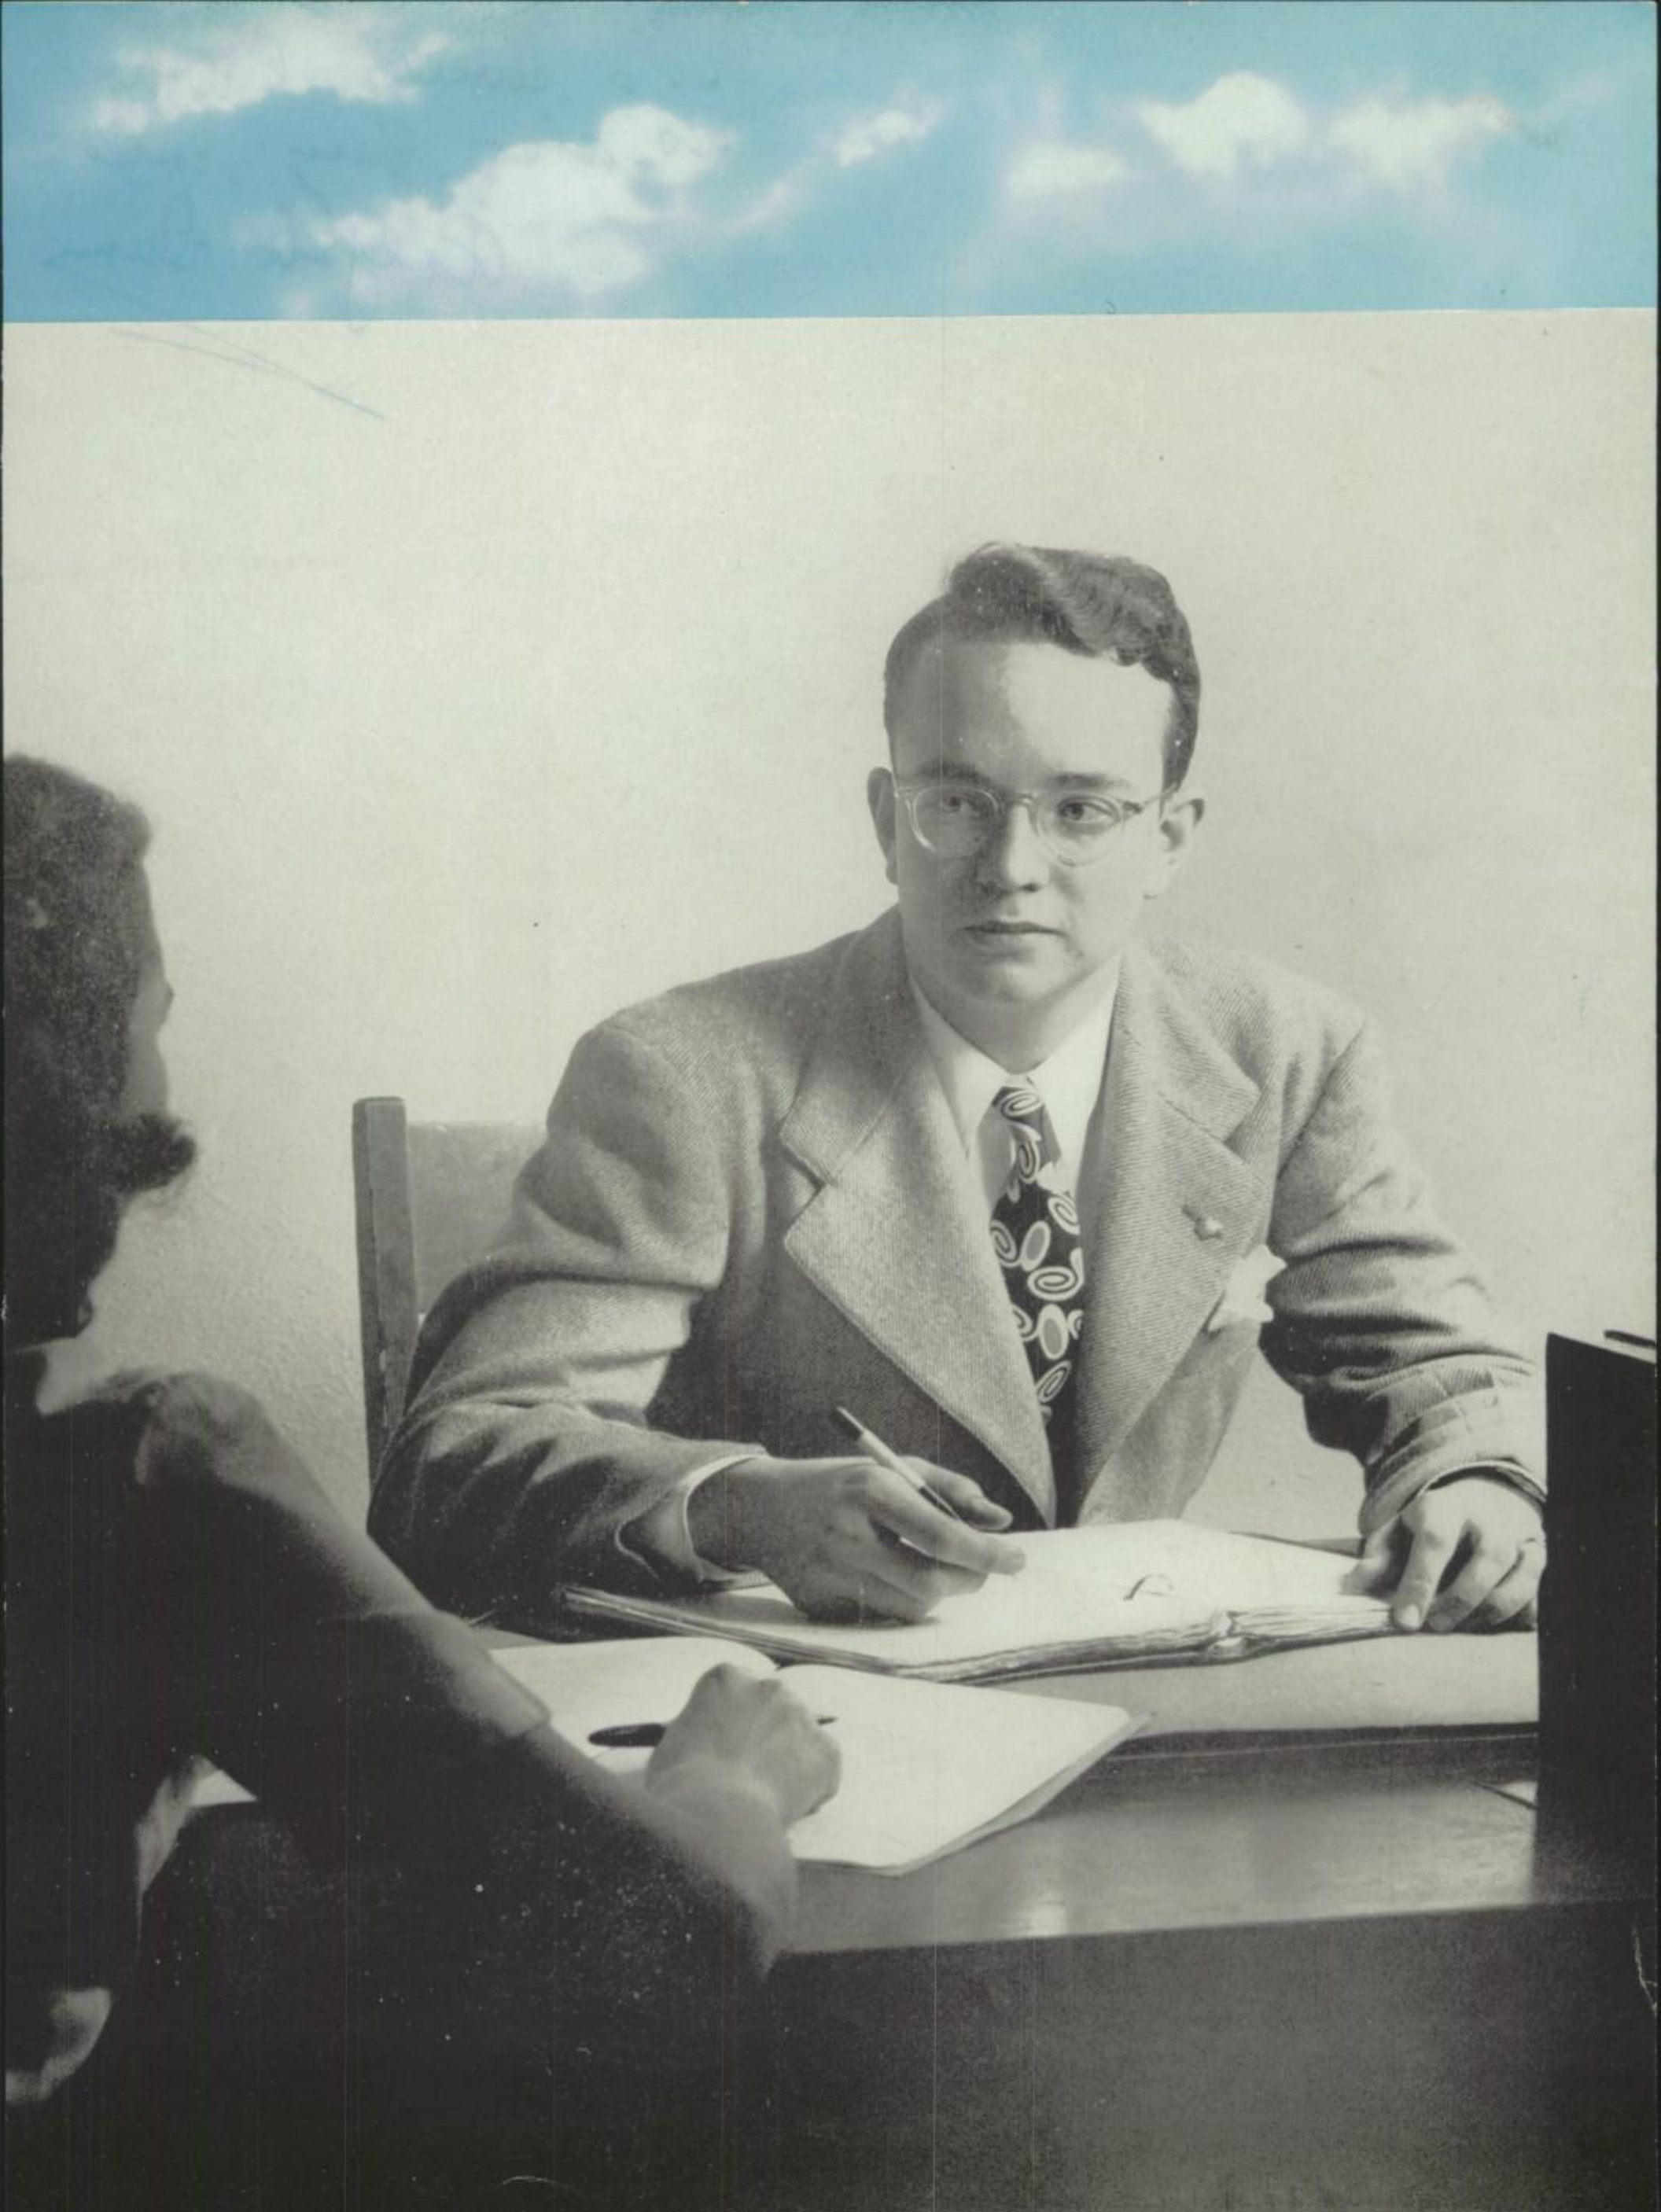
ENCOURAGE COOPERATION

Gerry Payne presides



To a swell girl who is also very cute!
Ralph Dunn

Student Council's President, Ralph Dunn, delivers an extemporaneous speech.

The second year in the life of the Student Council has been a sucessful one with Mrs. Edna LeRoy and Miss Helen Bejach as faculty sponsors, and Ralph Dunn as president. The efficient members of the Executive Committee have done their part too. Bob Endres, Tom Stegman, Nancy Griffes, and Joyce Theler were the senior members of this committee. The underclassmen included John Collins, Ben Lobitz, Jan McRae, Marilyn Schnabel, Robert Grimm, Russell Dunn, Janet Reid, Dwight Smith, and Eudice Skurow. Among the school services of the Council were providing ink in study halls, suggesting to avoid confusion the holding of bells when there is an auditorium, and setting up a system of hall guards to keep order during lunch period and to prevent the carrying of food from the lunchroom. Student Council has also collected money for a memorial to Hughes Gold Star veterans of World War II to be put in the front hall of Hughes.

OUR STUDENT COUNCIL SERVES THE SCHOOL WITH MANY VARIED AND HELPFUL ACTIVITIES

Marilyn Schnabel, who cares for the Lost and Found, is returning an article that has strayed from its owner, Marcia Rogers. The Lost and Found is open before school from 8:00 to 8:20. A slight fee is charged when articles are returned. This money helps to swell the Student Council treasury; it may serve to supply ink in study halls. At the end of the year the council disposes of the unredeemed articles in a specially advertised sale.

Every homeroom in the school elects a representative to the Student Council. The duties of these representatives are to attend every meeting, to bring requests of the students before the council, and to report to the homerooms activities of this organization.

Freshies' Aids are a selected group of senior girls who serve as guides for newcomers to the school. Throughout the building during the first two weeks of school, these girls report to their stations ready to aid those confused by the many halls of Hughes.

"TO DO THE THING I KNOW IS TRUE, AND SHOULD

Jane, Claire, Joyce sub as Dutch girls.

The fiddle and the chickens came from the Kentucky hills.

"To do the thing I know is true, and should not be ashamed to do—" is the aim for each Honor League girl, while the goal of the club as a whole is to serve Hughes and its pupils in whatever way possible. Carrying out their aim to serve others, members of the Honor League, as Freshies' Aids, (see group below) help incoming freshmen to become acquainted with Hughes, while their hours spent at the Information Desk (opposite page, below) speed many a visitor on his way. Honor League formally welcomed the freshman girls at the annual Big and Little Sister Party in October. This party has been a traditional event for many years. It is a symbolic friendly handshake which the seniors extend to the bewildered freshmen.

NOT BE ASHAMED TO DO--" IS AIM OF LEAGUE.

Miss Helman pours at the Christmas tea.

Get it right!

Alice became Alladin.

They entertained them with a "Thrilling Travelogue," a trip round-the-world in music taking them en route to a little Dutch garden with Jane and Claire Biederman and Joyce Patman, to the Kentucky Hills with these country folks, to South America where Shirley Bailes, a wayward Sally Birch, meets singer Ann Wilson through the magic powers of Alladin, Alice Twidale. Back stage, Vivian Hooser adds the final touch to Rosemary Matney's costume. At the Christmas Tea, the Honor League entertained their mothers and the graduates of 1947, amid the red candles, Christmas greens, and the tinkle of silver on china. Miss Ruth Helman pours coffee for the waiting guests in the library.

Keeping up with its standard of serving the school, the Hughes Club bought this year a 16 mm. Kodak movie camera and has begun a series of pictures which will present a well-rounded portrayal of life at Hughes. The camera is available to any other organization or club that wishes to use it. Selling of bus tickets and football novelties to fans is one of the many services rendered to the school. A keep-off-the-grass campaign, launched last year, took on added vitality this spring when many signs bearing the words, "Please Keep Off The Grass" appeared on the school "lawn." To round off the activities of the year the Hughes Club made its annual jaunt to Brown County State Park in Indiana.

--HUGHES CLUB HITS BROWN COUNTY, INDIANA!

The Hughes Club became the upper-class boys' service club of Hughes High School in 1919, and today it carries on the same tradition of service to the school and community. Every Monday, President Ollie Kutzleb presides over the business meeting. Ned Bishop and Gus Cassin, co-program-chairmen, provide a period of entertainment which includes a talk by a noted speaker or movies. The record of the meeting is taken down and kept in order by Bill Craft, Recording Secretary, while the correspondence of the club is taken care of by Don Lieder. Money matters are ably handled by Eddy Grad, who gives a report of the group's financial situation at each meeting. Mr. Arthur Havlovic, fondly known as "Mr. Gus," is on hand at all meetings as faculty sponsor.

THEY SET AGLOW THE LIGHT OF ACTIVE SERVICE

Y-TEENS, formerly Girl Reserves, is a junior organization of the Y.W.C.A. which has been reorganized this year. Its service activities included the sale of Christmas cards to raise money for the school, the Y.W.C.A., and themselves. Y-Teens sang Christmas carols for those at the General Protestant Orphanage, the Home for Aged Colored Women, the Colored Children's Orphanage, and St. Mary's Hospital. A large, enthusiastic group of girls had a happy year with Miss Rosemary Hope as faculty adviser.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH IN ACTION is a club for all the young people in the school who wish to make their religion a part of their everyday life and enjoy the companionship and inspiration of other people with Christian ideals and purpose. At their monthly meetings their activities include pictures, speakers, and music. Miss Mary McSurely is the helpful sponsor.

HI-Y OFFICERS PLAN ACTIVITIES: R. Dunn, treasurer; B. Gittinger, vice-president; L. Askew, president; and O. Kutzleb, secretary.

Twenty-seven members, fifteen seniors and twelve juniors, comprise one of the most active clubs in school, the Hughes Hi-Y. Much recognition has come to the Clifton Palace by way of its Hi-Y club. A number of Hi-Y clubs are to be established after the pattern of the club sponsored at Hughes. George Schreiber, a member, brought honor to Hughes when he was elected president of the Council of Hi-Y's in Cincinnati. Two successful dances planned by Hi-Y were the "Hi-Y 'Mr. X' Halloween Dance" and the "Hi-Y—Y-Teens Dance." Plans are now being made to organize a club among younger boys, patterned after the Hi-Y, and called "Krueck's Honor Society," after Coach "Red" Krueck, well-known in the history of Hughes football.

The Hughes Math Club under the able direction of Mr. Clyde Hall, sponsor, and Tom Stegman, president, was fortunate in having many interesting speakers this year. The members' thanks go to Lillian Eckman and Gerry Payne who planned the year's program. Dr. Brand, head of the Mathematics Department of the University of Cincinnati, Professor Restemier and Professor Dangle, both of the University of Cincinnati, spoke to the Math Club on various fields of advanced mathematics and their applications. The club enjoyed, too, Mr. Paul Bauer's talk on telescopes and their relation to mathematics. At the meeting designated for student participation, the members were able to prove their ability as mathematicians. The year's fun was drawn to a close by the annual May picnic at Burnet Woods.

HUGHES PALATORS DEBATE LIVE NATIONAL ISSUE

"Resolved: That the Federal Government should require compulsory arbitration of labor disputes in all basic American industries." The Parlators debated this topic and talked their way through a successful and eventful year. Two tournaments highlight the season's schedule which included debates and extemporaneous speeches almost every week. By being a member of the Greater Cincinnati Speech League, the Parlators receive their schedule of debates for a full year in advance and are permitted to enter the two speech tournaments. This schedule includes speech competition in debating, extemporaneous speaking, dramatic readings, poetry readings, oratorical declamation, original oratory, and humorous readings, with students from other high schools of the speech league. Among these high schools are Wyoming, Hamilton Public, St. Xavier, Purcell, Mother of Mercy, Covington Holmes, Newport Public, Newport Catholic, and Regina. Pat Roberts gained glory for herself and the Parlators by tying for first place in poetry reading.

"The meeting will please come to order," was a familiar cry from Room 301 after school the first Tuesday of each month, as President Tom Denhart opened another session of the Parlators. Vice-President Bill Heldman was always on hand and listened carefully to proceedings, while Pat Roberts, Secretary, took minutes and Phil Cohen collected dues and took care of all financial matters.

All the happenings went on under the direction of Mrs. Heile, who was always ready with a helpful suggestion in case a question concerning parliamentary law was bothering the club. If a member needed help with his debate or had speech difficulties, Mrs. Heile's assistance was invaluable.

Initiated this year, a successful new policy permitted freshman and sophomore members as well as junior and senior. Upon obtaining thirty points by a set point system, participants in speech activities are awarded the coveted Parlator's emblem which brings honor to themselves and to Hughes.

"ON STAGE!"

Thrills of stage work are familiar to every Sage member. This loyal group stands behind every production, giving assistance whenever it is required. The actors are merely the product presented to the audience. It is the people behind the scenes who insure a smooth-running production. Backstage work has many phases. They include activities of those in make-up, costuming, stage sets, properties, and prompting. These workers, as any professional actor will agree, are essential to every play. They work long hours in order to have the satisfaction of a job well done.

An important and active organization of Hughes is the famed Sages of the dramatic department under the capable guidance of Miss Helen Louise Stapleford. "Ever Since Eve" and "Pinocchio" were the star productions this year. Sage club meetings are the scenes for exercise of talent and skill in acting. Some of the outstanding one-act plays were "The Valiant," "Be A Little Coocoo," and "The Cornhusk Dollies." "All's Fair" and "The Flattering Word" were two longer ventures which afforded practical experience. The climax of the Sages' year arrives in the early spring when they engage, with very successful results, in one-act plays and poetry reading contests. Competition is keen as schools throughout the country participate, but Miss Stapleford's students have walked off with many of the prizes. Thespians, National Honor Society members, are elected from those who are responsible for the most important jobs connected with a production. The Children's Theater plays are designed for the "younger" audience. Traditional stories, fairy tales, popularized books are subjects for careful and charming presentations. Dramatic classes, incorporated into the curriculum, are a workshop in which to learn the acting business with training in voice control, diction, enunciation, posture, how to stand, sit, and walk. One-act plays are worked on by the class as a whole as they select, cast, direct, and produce their plays. The productions are sometimes given at the Sage club meetings. Every member of the dramatic class is eligible to join Sages.

THEY PRACTICE ALL THE TRICKS OF THE TRADE

Tantalizing odors drifting through the corridors, the click of knitting needles, the whirr of sewing machines —all indicate the industry of the Home Economics Department. Cakes, cookies, pies, bread, rolls, and many delectable dishes resulted from the efforts of the future homemakers. Sweaters, mittens, scarves, and socks constituted the lessons in knitting. The "New Look" became more apparent as the girls began work on skirts, suits, and dresses. In connection with these functions of the Home Economic Department, the Home Economics Club operates as a supplementary unit. All girls who are interested in home economics as a career find this club answers many of their problems. At their meetings, experts speak on many vital subjects. Often these topics supplement the regular classwork. Among the subjects discussed are homemaking and beauty hints, demonstrations on cuts of meats, discussions on budgeting, home decorating, meal planning, the care of a family, household tasks and cleaning methods, and learning cooperation. HUGHES SENIOR CHOIR CHARMS AUDIENCES

Impressive in black robes and red stoles, the A Cappella Choir gave its best whenever it performed and set a new height of musical achievement in high schools. Under the direction of Mr. John Molnor,, the Choir sang in auditorium sessions, creating a sympathetic atmosphere for the Thanksgiving and Yuletide seasons. Outside entertainment and television came within the scope of some of the members.

The Ninth grade Choir, under the direction of Mr. Robert McSpadden, participated in the Christmas Concert, singing in four part harmony such songs as "Bells of Paradise" and "Come all ye Shepherds," and in the second annual Junior High Sing at Wilson Auditorium in spring.

WITH ITS IMPRESSIVE VOLUME AND TONE

With other musical groups from Hughes, the Senior Choir participated in the Christmas and Spring Concerts and graduation exercises. Wielding the gavel over the Choir's fun and work was Lew Askew while other official duties were performed by Nina Jo Marucci, vice-president; Dottie Dunn, secretary; Doug Sonderman, treasurer; Bill Hoffman and Joyce Patman, librarians; and Gene Carner and Ann Wilson.

The function of the Junior Choir under the direction of Mr. John Molnar is to prepare the students for participation in the Senior Choir. Activities for the choir included a part in the Christmas Program and in the Spring Concert.

Officers of the Junior Choir: Bob Borchering, Vice-President; Eleanor Miller, Treasurer; Jo Ann Schafer, President; Gail Oesper, Librarian; Bob Wolf, Secretary.

QUANTITIES OF SHARPS AND FLATS CONCERN

The fun of singing entices many students to the various Glee Clubs. Under the direction of Mr. John Molnar and Mr. Robert McSpadden, they meet for famous practice sessions. They participate in various special assemblies and at concerts. Those who are interested in becoming members of the A Cappella find that the training offered by the Glee Club is an invaluable preparation.

After a season of successful performances on the gridiron, which included a Mother Goose Fantasy and the annual presentation of the Band's Sweetheart, popular Mary Jane Cheek, shown above with Drum Major Darrell Crowe, the students turned their attention toward more serious music. Under the capable direction of Mr. Rea W. Brown, the students displayed their talents at Parents' Night, South-Western Ohio Teachers' Meeting at Taft Auditorium, Spring and Christmas Concerts, and numerous assemblies. The climax of the year's activities is the Band Festival held in May. At this concert the various public high schools compete for honors.

Out of the dust of Withrow Field arose a never-to-be forgotten epic in the long history of the Hughes-Withrow rivalry. This was the story of a team which had gone through their entire schedule with one win, and one tie, a team which was expected to disintegrate before the onslaught of one of the most powerful teams in the city. But this was not to be. The Big Reds had forgotten that they were the underdogs; they had ignored the predictions of the experts; they were going to fight until the last second of the game had ticked away and when the final gun had fired they were still fighting. But now they were fighting to hold back their tears. They had lost in one respect, but this loss had brought almost as much satisfaction as a victory could have. According to the scoreboard, Hughes was the victim, but in spirit and fight she was truly the victor in the eyes of all her loyal supporters who had cheered her on to glory. The extra point proved to be tragedy to the team whose last drive toward pay dirt was stopped only by the sounding to the gun.

WITHROW—13

These eleven boys fought all through the first half until the final minute when Withrow scored on a pass and a plunge to lead at halftime 7-0. But Hughes was not beaten by a long shot. It seemed as if they were a new team when they came back in the second period: for within a few minutes Dunn had scored and Hughes was put behind by only one point. Then Heimkreiter plunged over for a second Hughes marker, and now every Hughes fan was cheering and pleading for the Big Reds to hold their 13-7 lead. But fate had planned otherwise, for once again Withrow's two great backs, Phillips and Van Epps, were tearing into the Red line which for once was giving way under the furious onslaught. Then a pass over goal, and the score was tied 13-13. A roar, like thunder, burst from the Hughes stands begging the Big Reds to block that all-important place pick. But mere spirit could not hold Jim Colwell's educated toe, and seconds later Withrow was ahead, and destined to stay there for the remainder of the annual contest.

HUGHES BIG RED ELEVEN HAS POOR FOOTBALL

HUGHES—0; ELDER—6

In a seesaw battle for four quarters Hughes and Elder both remained scoreless. But in the closing minutes of the final period, without warning the Panthers, were away and over the goal for a point which was good enough for them to claim the victory. However the Hughes gridders had played an exceptional game, and no one could complain.

HUGHES—0; ST. XAVIER—13

Midst rain and mud, Hughes and St. Xavier battled in a seesaw affair which saw the Bombers come out on top. The game was mostly a punting and running contest, in which neither team had a particular advantage. Except at the time of St. Xavier's touchdowns, the game was evenly matched, but again because of a few slips it was lost.

SEASON IN ENGAGING POWERFUL OPPONENTS

HUGHES—30; WALNUT HILLS—0

In the PHSL double-header, a seemingly reborn Hughes eleven took the offense and rode the crest of victory over Walnut Hills to the time of 30-0. From the opening blast of the whistle to the final volley of the timekeeper's gun, the game belonged to Hughes. Blandchard accounted for three markers, Dunn for another, and Todd for one more.

HUGHES—6; COLUMBUS WEST—33

Having travelled upstate to meet the team which then ranked fourth in the state, the Hughes Big Reds met defeat in a game full of penalties, injuries, and bad officiating. The lone Hughes tally was registered as Fred Heimkreiter snared a Columbus pass and trotted 60 yards to pay dirt.

HUGHES—0; PURCELL—20

Facing a Purcell eleven with a 22 consecutive victory record at stake, the Clifton Knights received a trouncing which left no doubt as to which was the better team. The Cavaliers cashed in on their aerial attack, putting on a barrage which dumbfounded the Hilltoppers and accounted for most of the tallies. Again Hughes reached paydirt only to be called back.

HUGHES—0; COLUMBUS CENTRAL—0

Although the Big Reds were on the defense during most of the game, the wind and rain played a major part in keeping the game scoreless. The water soaked field allowed neither team enough footing to even start to work their plays. With all the rain and wind and only a handful of spectators, the game was not too successful, and the final gun found two zeros on the score board.

HUGHES—0; CENTRAL—12

After the season had begun with the ball being dropped from a blimp, the Big Reds followed suit and dropped the game to Central by a two touchdown margin. After a scoreless half in which the Huzites had constantly remained on the offensive, the Mechanics returned to bounce off two quick tallies in the final period. Central's first T.D. came as Marvin Barkley scored on a 65 yard trot, and the second arrived on Barkley's 30 yard pass. Bad breaks and a touchdown called back hampered the Reds seriously.

HUGHES—0; WESTERN HILLS—18

Fighting for a chance at the PHSL crown, the Big Reds were pulled into the rear of that race by a hard-fighting Western Hills eleven. Two Maroon touchdowns in the first half and one in the record, spelled out defeat for the Clifton Knights as the jinx of Withrow Field, where the game was played, again took a victory from the grasp of the Hughes team. For Western Hills it was their air attack which brought them to the victory, but they were helped by the listless performance of the Clifton Knights.

HUGHES—7; HAMILTON—25

This contest was the story of a small crimson wall holding back the great flood of white which, once past the wall, was uncontrollable. Hughes was outclassed, outweighed, in fact almost anything but outfought by the Blue and White team which ranked in Ohio's top ten. Injuries, which put leaks in the Red's defense, came often but these leaks were soon filled with fresh substitutes. It was the battle of superior strength and ability against guts and determination, and the latter somehow made a contest of it. For Hamilton, it was James Bailey acting as the tidal wave which kept beating against the Red wall until it seemed as if the wall would burst, but it held and held true. It was not all defense for the Reds, for often they went forward, driving back the sea of white, always driving forward with relentlessness born seemingly of a need to fight for their lives.

Withrow's place kick wins the game.

Hard work and little glory best describe the lot of the cross country team. The harriers start practicing early in the fall. Practice consists of running over a rough course of two and one half miles in Burnet Woods. Then the meets are real tests, for the pace set up in these races is gruelling. There is almost no school backing to this sport since it holds little interest for the outsider. In spite of this, the runners put all they have into each race, and never give up until they have passed the finish line.

BIG RED HARRIERS PLACE SEVENTH IN STATE

Led by little Jack Heineman, the Hughes Cross Country team took the runner-up position in all the P.H.S.L. meets and the district meet, finishing behind an exceptionally fine Central team. Having qualified for the state meet, the harriers traveled upstate to Mansfield, where they pulled something of an upset by placing seventh, while Central took twelfth. With only two lettermen graduating, Mr. Kindschy can look forward to a very powerful team next season.

STANDING: J. Heineman, D. Weigand, I. Stout, M. Bruning, T. Hartley, D. Wahle. SEATED: J. Socol, H. Maybrier, S. Koch, S. Cohen.

Although the reserve team was used more for giving boys experience than for winning meets, the end of the season saw Hughes finishing third. Western Hills took the lead in the first meet and never relinquished it. However, Hughes and Central fought a nip and tuck battle for the runner up position, with Central ending up the victor. The Avon Field meets were real contests in which nothing could be taken for granted. The 2½ mile course is a gruelling test for even veteran runners, but still the reserves showed spunk.

They're off!

The Big Red cagers were not so big this year and consequently could not win as many games as they might have. Although the team under Coach Reuss had a deadly defense, their lack of height hindered them to so great an extent that they were able to overcome only four of nineteen opponents.

HUZ RESERVES RECOVER CITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Although the reserve gymnasts had relinquished their monopoly on the P.H.S.L. crown to Walnut Hills for the past two years, they bounced back and again took over. Having been pushed down into the ranks of defeat, the reserves once again tasted sweet victory as they beat all opponents by a more than sufficient margin. Each meet proved more and more that both the reserve and varsity teams were in a class of their own, and as the season ended, no one could deny Hughes' right to the championship in both divisions.

For the twelfth time in as many consecutive years, Coach Paul Richert's Big Red gymnasts took the undisputed crown in the P.H.S.L., and forged ahead to take all the honors in the post season meets. The issue was never in doubt all season, as the matmen led by an overwhelming margin in all the meets. Then, to top off their glory, a Hughes sophomore, Bill Connely, took first place in the all-around meet. The Turners and Y.M.C.A. meet also proved easy "meat" for the Huzites and once more the Clifton Palace ruled.

RESERVE SWIMMERS FINISH AS RUNNERS-UP

Because of poor construction the Hughes pool was put out of commission when the ceiling collapsed into the pool. In spite of this the swimming team under Coach Alan Kindschy managed to squeeze in practice sessions whenever possible in other indoor pools around the city, and somehow were ready in time for the first meet. Defending the P.H.S.L. crown proved too great a task for the mermen as they were left in the rear by Walnut Hills and Western Hills to finish in third place. Captained by Conrad Seyfried, the Big Reds looked as though they were a sure thing for first place when they beat Walnut Hills in a dual meet before the regular season. However the city meets saw an entirely different situation, and the Huzites had to relinquish the crown.

The junior team, also handicapped by the loss of the use of their pool, did a little better than their varsity brothers. Making a valiant stand against an exceptionally good Walnut Hills team, the Redlets met their masters and took the runner-up position. The small but sturdy team under Coach Alan Kindschy gave Hughes hopes of a powerful varsity team for next year.

As the annual goes to press, the track team is as yet very indefinite. From the looks of the number of missing lettermen, Coach Paul Richert will have a difficult time molding his inexperienced material into a polished team; but judging from past performances, Hughes will have a team which she can be proud of. The team will be built around Captain Roger Moore who is well known in track circles around Cincinnati. Moore is one of the five returning lettermen. These lettermen are Roger Moore, Doug Doerr, Erwin Stout, Andy Breiner, and Bill Miller. The schedule for this year started on April 14, when the Big Reds met Central and Walnut Hills. Then on April 20, Western Hills and Withrow formed the opposition, while Withrow again met the Huzites on April 27. After these preliminary meets the Big Reds met their toughest opponents in the K. of C. meet on May 1, the Miami meet on May 8, the district meet on May 14 and 15, the city meet on May 18 and 19, and finally the state meet on May 21 and 22.

Illustrations on page one hundred thirty-seven show Sakelos just finishing third, Doerr taking a long jump, Moore practicing starts, Jenkins up with a mighty heave, Briener going up and over, Dunn showing good form in clearing hurdle, Phillips of Withrow in the lead in hurdles, boys passing the baton in a relay.

Last year the Richertmen finished second in the Public High School League, losing by only one quarter of a point. Then they went on to take another runner-up position in the city meet, this time losing by two points. A third place in the K. of C. meet, and a third place in the district meet finished the team's season. However, Roger Moore traveled upstate for the state meet and took a third in the 220 yard dash, at the same time breaking a school record for that event.

Although the tennis team has switched from the guidance of Coach Alan Kindschy to that of Coach Grimes, their prospects look bright. The team, last year, came in fifth in the P.H. S.L., but with the four returning lettermen —Bob Johnson, Ben Lobitz, Bob Campbell, and Bill Hettesheimer—this year should tell another story. Last year's team was captained by Charles Goering.

FORE!

This year will be the second year in which Hughes has had a golf team, and it probably will be a successful year, although at presstime things are as yet uncertain. The team will have for its nucleus three veterans: Bob Jacobs, Bob Hassel, and Edgar Dolman. These three boys were on the team last year and since then all three have improved rapidly.

BIG RED NINE COMPOSED OF VETERAN PLAYERS

Play Ball! That familiar phrase echoes from the grandstands at Crosley Field to the sand lot on the corner, and even to the wide open spaces of Coy Field. The baseball season is on. The Big Reds got a three weeks start on Mr. Crosley's Reds. The Hughes season opened Friday, April 2.

The Hughes Hardball Hopes are high this year, as they usually are, but Mayor Reuss has made no promises. The group this year is minus the services of eight graduated players. The team has seven returning lettermen to strengthen the new recuits, however.

Nine P.H.S.L. games are on the docket for the season. Games with St. Xavier, Purcell, Elder, Roger Bacon, Norwood, and Reading also are scheduled. The P.H.S.L. games will be played on Tuesday and Friday afternoons. Outside games will be sandwiched in between the two P.H.S.L. games each week. Bob Gittinger, co-captain of this year's basketball squad, is captain of the Hughes Baseball team. Gittinger is playing short stop this year. The duties behind the plate will be handled by John Strassberger and Don Hines. Mound work has been assigned to Johnny Vollat, Larry Hoover, Allen Janszen, Charlie Salsman, Ralph Westerkamp, and Gene Grosheim. Ralph Dunn will handle play around second. Third base position goes to Karl Becker. Wes Terrell, Freddie Heimkreiter, Jim Heines, and Dick Marrs will patrol the outfield for the Big Reds.

Vollat prepares to deliver.

A VARIETY OF SPORTS SHOWS G.A.A. INTERESTS

Jean Thielmeyer, secretary; Mildred Schroeder, vice-president; Dolores Bonomini, president; Janet Thielmeyer, treasurer are the guiding hands of the Girls' Athletic Association.

G.A.A. spirit of good sportsmanship and cooperation is reflected in their motto: "For when the one great Scorer comes to mark against your name, he cares not whether you won or lost but how you played the game." Besides developing a program of year round sports activities, the G.A.A. undertakes other worthwhile projects. Miss Balastra, the popular sponsor of G.A.A., is responsible for interesting girls in this great organization.

"Batter up!" Before organizing into regular teams, these softball players practice the rules and fundamental principles of the game. After they are well-versed in the techniques, they take to Coy Field where a lively battle ensues.

One of the most impressive initiation ceremonies is that of the G.A.A. With corsages and a friendly smile, the officers welcome each member. At the left the "pledges" with lipstick smeared faces rough it in the informal initiation.

Modern Robin Hoods meet every Wednesday in the gym. Here they learn the fundamentals and perfect their technique. Betty Roberts is sport leader of archery. The high point of this activity is the annual tournament.

"Get a horse!" These hardy enthusiasts follow that prescription every Friday at Springlawn. Marita Lakonen, sportsleader, guides beginners. In their weekly rides they learn the basic principles of the art of horsemanship.

Practicing after school, the modern dancing group learns elementary steps and poses, putting them together into dances and routines which create illusions through graceful lines and striking poses.

Tumbling draws together girls interested in having fun as well as in becoming more adept in mat artistry. Their acrobatics include cartwheels, backbends, handstands, head stands, summersaults, and animal stunts.

Individual sports give players the opportunity to enter the sport of their choice. These sports include ping pong, deck-tennis, shuffleboard, horseshoes, and badminton. At the end of the season, they have tournaments among themselves.

Battling away at Coy Field is the hockey team. A year never passes without one of the girls getting "banged up." Hockey Play Day is the main event of the year for hockey players.

THE ROUGH AND TUMBLE COMPETITION BEGINS

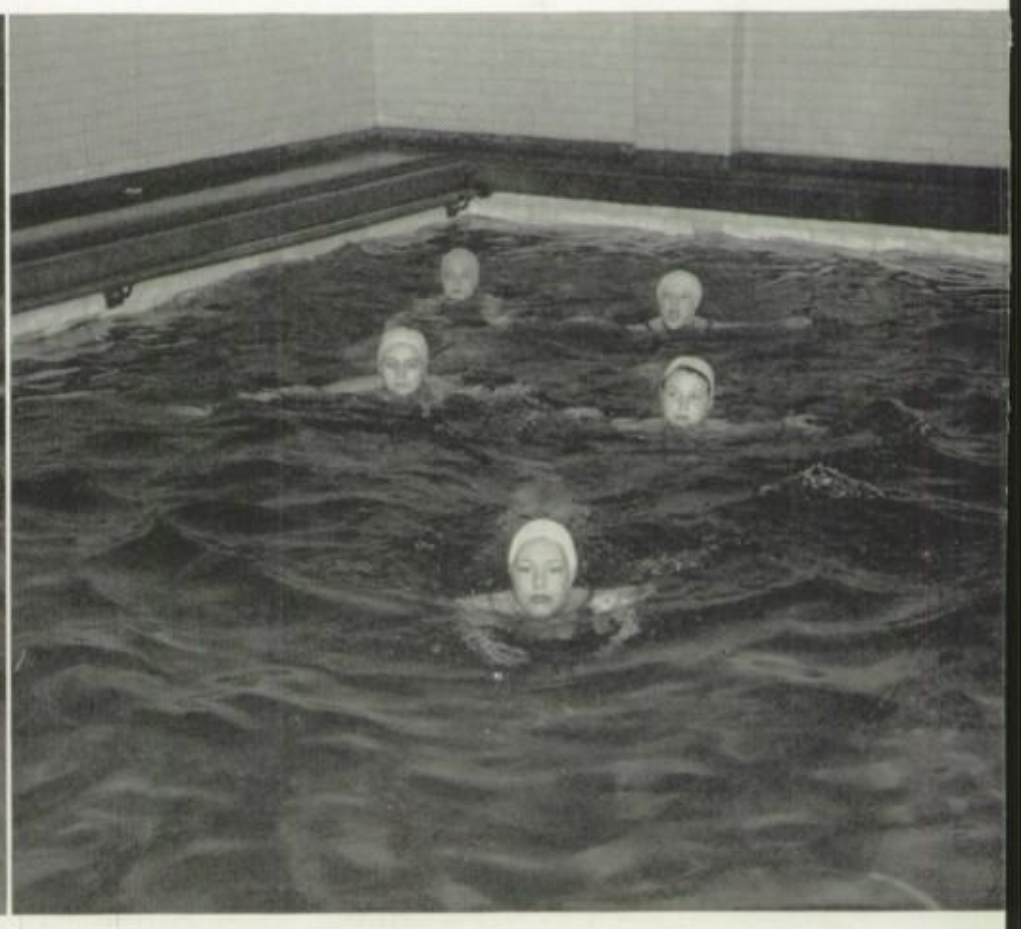
Team work plus coordination, good sportsmanship, and ability are parts of volleyball. These "honor" members are V. Hale, C. Hughes, C. Nikias, D. Bonomini, S. Moormeier, and M. Schroeder.

OUR SPORTS ARE TAILORED TO SUIT ALL GALS

"Spare! Strike!" Every Monday at Mergard's, different teams meet and compete in the "alley battle." Each team has a captain; for a second year, Virginia Hale is sportleader for bowling.

Mermaids splash in the boys' pool on Fridays under Miss Nurre's keen eye. In the class, they improve technique in swimming and diving. Their ability placed them third in the meet.



Sharon Roberts

G.A.A. Banquet climaxes the year of sports activities. At this annual event, the Honor Ring is given to the G.A.A.'er who, in the faculty's opinion, is outstanding in her participation and cooperation. Last year Sharon Roberts won the award.

"Tisket a tasket! She made a basket!" Camera catches P. Royce, Jean Thielmeyer, J. Molloy, D. Bonomini in action.

"Dribble! Shoot! Foul!" On Tuesdays and Thursdays, these exclamations are usually heard on the basketball court. Although some of the fundamentals of the girls' game vary from those of the boys', there is still plenty of action. The Battle of the Sexes was newly inaugurated last year. Although the boys play the game according to the girls' rules, the contest is still a thrilling one. This year, during the annual Play Day, Withrow fell to the prowess of the "Indians." Hughes also came in first in the city tournament.

WE NOT ONLY PINE FOR YOU BUT NOW WE EVEN BALSAM!

No kidding, Class of 1948, we hate to see you go!

We've enjoyed taking each Senior and each Faculty portrait, as well as the groups, action and dramatic photographs that have made this and many past year's Annuals outstanding.

CINCINNATI PROCESS

for Engravings of Distinction

Your pictures tell your story and each picture is "worth more than a thousand words" if the ancient Chinese proverb is accepted. To keep that high-wordage story-telling quality the engravings of your pictures must reproduce details and tonal values as faithfully as your camera recorded them. Here, at Cincinnati Process, we have always stressed the importance of fidelity in reproduction and our craftsmen accept that responsibility. Each one knows that his artistry in copper must receive the imprimatur of his company; every engraving carries his reputation as well as ours. That is why our engravings tell the whole story and the reason they appear in such good company as books like this one.
